

Legislature

Republican

Glen E. Brown

The four counties that make up this Legislative District include Summit, Wasatch, Morgan, and Rich. The citizens who live in the District are among the finest in the State of Utah. In addition, they represent a broad spectrum of values and vocations. I feel that I have a real good understanding of the needs and interests of this district and will be able to be a strong voice for our District at the legislature.

During the past two years, I have been working hard to meet the

Continued on Page 8A

Democrat

Jean Stauffer

The issues of the 1990's will be access to health care, education, quality of life, water, environment, economic development and tax structure.

Our current legislature has not adequately dealt with these issues and does not represent the interests and viewpoints of the people of District #54.

We have an education crisis. I support the Democratic platform calling for more resources for education, paid for by tax restructuring.

Continued on Page 8A

Republican

Alarik Myrin

It has been an honor to serve as Senator for the past four years, representing Daggett, Uintah, Duchesne, and Wasatch Counties, half of Summit County and part of Carbon County. I am looking forward to working with the people and representing them in the Senate for the next term.

Wave 3 Oct 1990

GEORGE A. FISHER

George A. Fisher was born July 4, 1883, at Park City, son of David and Mary Ann 355

McDonald Fisher. He married Anne McMillan in Heber in 1909.
Graduate of the Utah Business College, where he served as vice president of the school paper. He held office of the several years of the county office of the Wasatch Valley Publishing Co. He served as clerk of the U. S. 17th circuit in Wasatch and Carbon Counties from 1906 to 1909. He was a member of the Utah Legislature in the Wasatch County in 1917.

George was the owner and first president of the Heber Hotel and Carlo Gross' Assistant manager of the Wasatch County school board. Vice president of the Association of Western Public Land States, executive secretary of the Utah land board, chairman of the Wasatch County Chapter American Red Cross from 1917 to 1932. He was an active member of several public and private organizations and was a cattle raiser, fruit growing, hotel and store business. He was the founder of the town of Koehn, Wasatch County, in 1922, where he made his home until his death, July 17, 1954.

post

GEORGE A. FISHER

George A. Fisher was born July 4, 1883, at Park City, son of David and Mary Ann

375

McDonald Fisher. He married Anne McMillan in Heber in 1914. Graduate of the Utah Business College where he served as vice editor of the school paper. He worked and lived for several years in the West. He served as editor of the Utah Countryman in Washoe and Nevada Counties from 1909 to 1919. He was a member of the Utah Legislature from Washoe County in 1917.

George was 5'6" in 1917 and had passed out of the Heber High and Carlini Grange. His Association of the Washoe County school board past president of the Association of Western P. O. Land States, ex-ecutive secretary of the Utah Land Board, chairman of the Washoe County Chapter American Red Cross (1917 to 1933). He was an author of several books published by the University of Utah Press. He was a member of the Utah Countryman and the Utah Countryman. He was the founder of the town of Kootenai, Washoe County, in 1922 where he made his home until his death July 17, 1934.

Writer
Poet